Enjoyable Entertainment.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments tendered the visiting delegates of St. Vincent de Paul Conference was held at the home of Mrs. John McKinley, No. 2605 East Franklin Street, on Thursday afternoon from 3 to 7 o'clock.

The house was profusely decorated with palms and cut flowers. American Beauty roses being used in the hall and parlors, and pink the color in the dining-room, effectively carried out in the table decorations of carnations and tulips, shaded candelabra and fancy ices. Progressive euchre was played, the prizes being won by Miss Kane, of Larchmont, N. Y., and Miss Rowan, of New York City, while the consolation went to Mrs. Cunlon, of New York City.

Before departing each guest was presented with a handomely decorated box containing a souvenir of her Richmond visit.

The guests of the evening included Mesdames Cunlon, Tully, Barry, American, Meloney, Crowley, Duffy and Menahan, of New York City; Misses Rowan and Lane, Mrs. Lane and daughter, of Larchmont, N. Y.; Miss O'Flaherty, New York City; Mrs. Toomey, St. Louis; Mrs. Guilford, New Jersey, and the Misses Madden, New York City.

Assisting Mrs. McKinley in receiving were Mrs. Phil J. Kelley, Mrs. W. P. Lehman, Mrs. D. Robinson, Mrs. Solari, Mrs. John A. Murphy, Mrs. John Biley, Mrs. Caravati, Mrs. Thomas Ryan, Miss Blanche McIntyre, Miss Agnes T. Forrester, Mrs. Chris Manning, Jr., and Mrs. Rankin.
